Senator Anne Gobi Hosts Massasoit Art Guild Exhibit in the Senate Lobby

BOSTON – Senator Anne M. Gobi (D-Spencer) is proud to present a new collection of artwork curated by The Massasoit Art Guild, to be displayed in the Senate Lobby through the end of September at the State House in Boston.

"The talented artists that are part of the Massasoit Art Guild continue to produce extraordinary works of art," said Senator Gobi. "It is an honor for me to share their talents with my colleagues as well as the multitude of tourists that visit the State House."

The Massasoit Art Guild exhibit is the second in a series of rotating art displays from districts across the Commonwealth.

"We are delighted and thrilled to be a part of this special occasion. We are honored the Senator Gobi chose us to represent her district," said Gail Magwood of the Massasoit Art Guild.

The Massasoit Art Guild was formed in 2001 by Norman Cabana and Greg Lacaire. The Massasoit Art Guild celebrated its 10th Anniversary in 2011 and now resides in the historic Hodgkins Building in East Brookfield, MA. It includes members from over 20 towns throughout Central Massachusetts. For more information please visit www.massasoitartguild.com
