Representative Gobi has 100% Voting Record

(BOSTON)— During the 2014 Formal Sessions, the House of Representatives had a total of 226 roll call votes; however, only 56 of the House’s 155 members have a 100% roll call attendance record. Representative Gobi is pleased to say that she is one of the 56 members with such a record. “As your State Representative, I take very seriously my duties at the State House, including chairing hearings, attending meetings, and making sure I am present to vote on legislation that affects all of us,” said Representative Gobi.

Being able to consistently provide a voice on Beacon Hill for the people of 11 towns and communities is a great privilege for Representative Gobi. Ensuring the concerns of those in Central Massachusetts are equally represented as those from other parts of the Commonwealth is a top priority for Representative Gobi. Having a 100% voting record ensured that Representative Gobi was able to play a key role in deciding legislation that directly benefits her constituents, and the entire Commonwealth, such as funding for local projects in her districts, updated gun legislation, and improving water infrastructure.
